Form 990-EZ, Part I, Line 12 - Staff including officers went largely unpaid during 2024, due to the organization's difficult financial circumstances. This return reports, in the expenses and liabilities sections, a portion of what we'd hoped to be able to pay people. It does so as unpaid salary which the organization intends to pay, together with the associated tax and insurance costs. In addition to that committed back pay amount, we note here by way of memorandum, an additional amount of discretionary back pay for 2024, which the organization will issue in the (less likely) scenario that it is ever possible to do so. This discretionary back pay totals $12,580.19 in salary, plus FICA, Medicare and workers comp, which at current rates would bring the total cost to $13,698.20. The limited pay issued, committed back pay promised, and discretionary back pay, combine to the total of what the original hoped-for salaries were.

Reasonable Cause Explanations

Explanation
Our organization is not required to file a 990 return. We do so voluntarily, as our method of providing a publicly-available financial statement. Because we were not required to file this return at all, it should not be considered late.
